The Studio Flyer provides a solution for housing your portable recording studio. With 2U or 4U of rack space for recording gear and a 21.5" x 15.5", (546mm x 394mm), surface for laptops or LCD screens, the Studio Flyer offers protection for your recording and [processing equipment on the road. Both the thick convoluted foam padding in the lid and the cleat system secure the laptop during transport. Cable pass through allows the laptop and rack gear to remain cabled up at all times. "Rotomolded" for durability, the case features 8 adjustable cleats, four in-line wheels, a pull out handle and two cushioned rubber over-moulded carry handles. The reinforced nylon trigger release latching system includes a TSA locking latch which enables the traveller to safely lock the case and still have it inspected by airline security.
